

The Education Law Center, Volunteer Lawyers for Justice and Rutgers Institute for Professional Education are pleased to announce:

REPRESENTING STUDENTS WHO ARE BULLIED

November 29, 2011

1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Rutgers School of Law-Newark
123 Washington Street | Newark, NJ 07102

This program focuses on representing students who are bullied. Topics include what we know and can do from an expert's perspective, as well as legal requirements and claims under New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act, federal and state anti-discrimination laws, New Jersey Tort Claims Act, and more. The Education Law Center and Volunteer Lawyers for Justice designed the training to encourage attorneys to take on pro bono representation of students. The program fee will be waived for attendees who commit to taking on at least one pro bono case in the coming year.

- Bullying: What We Know and Can Do
 - Stuart Green, DMH, LCSW, Founder, New Jersey Coalition for Bullying Awareness and Prevention
- Federal Claims Under the U.S. Constitution, Anti-Discrimination Laws, and Individuals with Disabilities Education Act
 - Jerry L. Tanenbaum, Esq., Partner, Schnader Harrison Segal & Lewis LLP
- New Jersey's Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights
 - Frank Vespa-Papaleo, Esq., Adjunct Professor, Montclair State Univ., Center for Child Advocacy and former Director, NJ Division on Civil Rights
 - Elizabeth Athos, Esq., Education Law Center
- Overview of School District Liability for Bullying
 - Luanne M. Peterpaul, Esq., Law Offices of Peterpaul & Clark

CLE Credit: 4.5 credit hours NJ | NY and 3.5 credit hours PA

Registration Fee: $100 [Fee waived for those who commit to take on a pro bono case]

Register at www.rutgerscle.com